Reality is like a pizza. what toppings are even real?

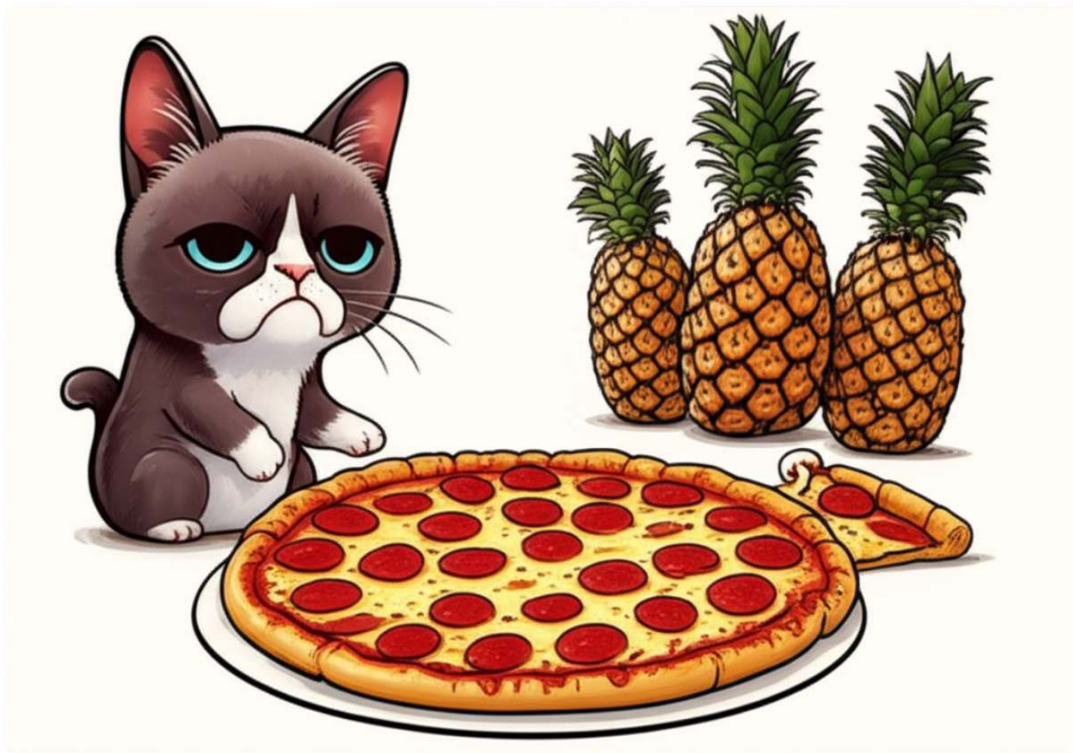

Tiny Grumpy Cat wonders, "Is this pepperoni even there?"

Metaphysics asks big questions about pizza existence. Like, what is "pizza-ness"?

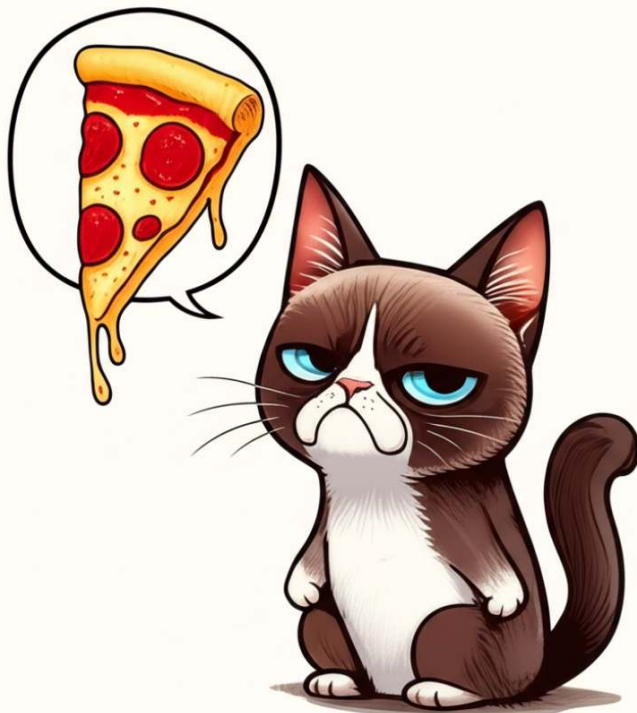

Head-bobbing kitty just grooves to the pizza
vibes. Does it even matter if it's real?

Questionable choices? ordering pineapple. Some cats revolt!

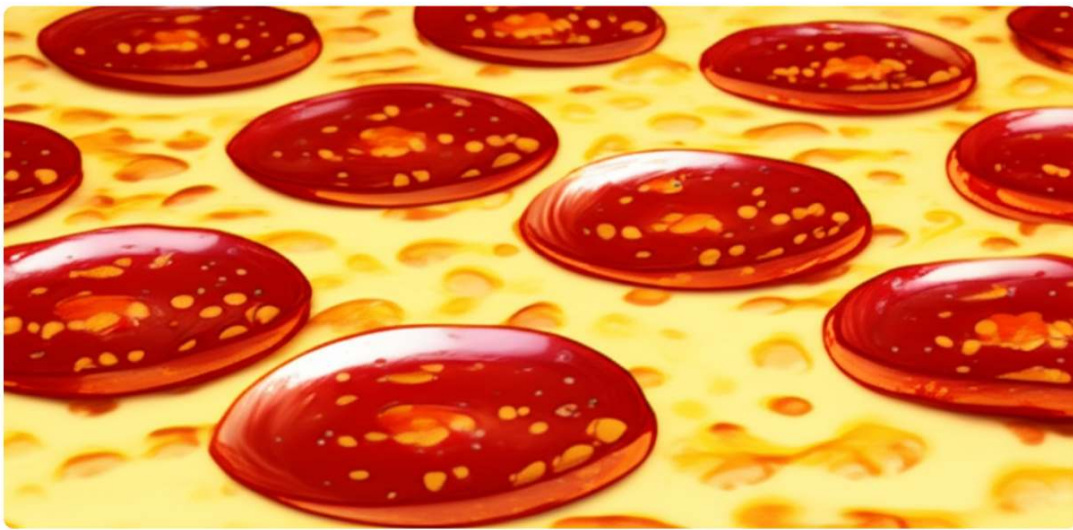

Meow Mix rave kitties don't care. More fuel for the party!

Doneness level? Slightly burnt crust is a questionable choice for some.

Is a raw dough pizza even real pizza? Metaphysically speaking... nope!

Head-bobbing kitty will still try a bite. why not?

undercooked pizza? A questionable choice leading to a gooey reality.

Grumpy Cat judges your soggy pizza decisions. "This is unacceptable."

Perfectly baked? Now THAT'S a reality most cats can agree on.

Metaphysically, a well-done pizza
is more "pizza" than a burnt one.

Head-bobbing kitty happily munches
the perfect slice. Good choice!

Now, let's talk donuts! Are donut holes just... absent donuts? Reality!

Metaphysics ponders the "hole-ness"
of the donut hole. Deep stuff!

Questionable choice: a donut with no frosting? Blasphemy for some!

Meow Mix rave kitties will still dance with it. Sugar is sugar!

Donut doneness? Raw dough is a metaphysically questionable donut.

grumpy Cat wouldn't even look at an undercooked donut. "Disgusting."
